

Four questions for individual reflection

1. Does God want to shine his light on any things in my life that need to change?
2. What is my practical plan of action to see those things change? (be open with someone, some slightly deeper prayer etc.)
3. Am I growing as a Christian? Is my trajectory towards “progressive sanctification”? If not, what needs to change?
4. What truths of my identity in Christ do we need to grasp afresh today?
